Graduate Student Thesis Advisor Agreement

By signing this form, I agree to function as the graduate student's thesis advisor until completion of the thesis. If a co-advisor is added and a co-advising agreement should also be signed. If for any reason the advisor can no longer function as thesis advisor, the student or advisor should notify the department office, and a new agreement must be formed within two weeks between the student and another advisor. This form is in both English and Chinese. The form only needs to be completed in one language. The student and the advisor may choose the language of the form.
